

* James L. (Jim) Clark
Topeka
KSBA Hall of Fame
Service – Posthumously - 1991

James L. (Jim) was an avid bowler. He was a member of the Topeka Bowling Associations Board of Directors. He also served as President. He was later elected Secretary of the Topeka Association, a position he held for almost ten years.

He wrote a weekly bowling column for the Topeka Daily Capital. He was co-manager of the Meadow Lanes Bowling Palace where he formed many new leagues and worked hard at promoting the game of bowling.

Jim passed away in 1962. He was elected to the Hall of Fame of Topeka posthumously. A memorial fund was set up which helped fund a tournament bearing his name that still exists today.
