

Rex Haney
Topeka
KSBA Hall of Fame
Service - 2002

Rex and Kathi Haney became owners of the ReKat Recreation, Inc. in 1996, of the Gage Bowls in Topeka. Rex grew up in Cherryvale. He would have to be considered a “Hands on Operator”. His career led him through Starlite Lanes in McPherson from 1976 to 1981. In 1981 he became the general manager of Gage Bowls and New Holiday Bowl in Salina. In 1989 his duties expanded to include general manager of Property Management Company, responsible for over 100,000 square feet of retail and office space.

Rex has been involved in all aspects of the “Game of Bowling”. Some of his accomplishments: hosted the 1985- & 1986-Women’s US Open, Managing Board President of YABA 1995-1999. President of KSBPA 1989-1992 and President of BPAA 1998-2000. He has also presented many seminars on bowling across the country including National Conventions as well as Regional and State Conventions.

Rex is a member of the TBA “Hall of Fame” and a 2001 TBA Team Champion of the TBA City Tournament. He is a graduate from WU in Political Science and Pre-Law. He and his wife Kathi, have two sons Britt a graduate of KU and Bernie a graduate of KSU.